The diagram illustrates the application area boundaries. It features a stepped horizontal line representing the boundary, situated between two vertical lines. The vertical lines are labeled with longitudes 129°20' on the left and 129°40' on the right. The horizontal boundary is labeled with latitudes 24°38' on the right side, indicating the upper limit of the area. A lower latitude of 24°41' is also indicated, likely representing a specific boundary or a reference point. A dashed line above the horizontal boundary spans the entire width between the two vertical lines.
